GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

The general meeting of shareholders is the highest decision-making body through which the shareholders exercise their influence over the company. Shareholders who wish to participate in the general meeting, personally or through a proxy, must be recorded in the share register five weekdays prior to the general meeting and must notify the company as specified in the notice to attend the meeting.

Notice of a general meeting is given through an announcement in the official gazette Post- och Inrikes Tidningar and on the company's website (www.iar.com). On the date of the notice, an announcement stating that notice has been given shall be published in Svenska Dagbladet.

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) shall be held within six months from the end of the financial year. At the AGM the shareholders resolve among other things on election of Board members and, when appropriate, election of auditors, the principles for appointment of the nominating committee and discharge from liability for the Board of Directors and the CEO for the past year. The AGM also resolves on adoption of the financial statements, appropriation of profits, fees for the Board of Directors and auditors and principles for remuneration for the CEO and other senior executives.

The AGM re-elected sitting Board members Markus Gardien, Peter Larsson, Karin Moberg, Jonas Mårtensson and Stefan Skarin. The AGM appointed Markus Gardien as Board Chairman.

It was furthermore decided that board fees would be paid in an annual amount of SEK 300,000 to the Board Chairman and SEK 125,000 to each of the other Board members. No fees are paid to the Board members who are employed in the company.

The AGM resolved to appoint a nominating committee according to the following. The Board Chairman shall convene the company's three largest shareholders in terms of voting power, each of which shall then appoint a member to the nominating committee. In addition, the Board Chairman can be appointed as a member of the nominating committee. The AGM resolved in accordance with the Board's proposal to pay a dividend of SEK 5.00 per share for 2013, through a mandatory redemption procedure.

The Board of Directors was authorized, on one or several occasions during the period until the next AGM, to decide on the issue of class B shares in a number equal to not more than 10% of all registered shares in the company on the date of the AGM in exchange for non-cash consideration. The motive for the authorization is to provide opportunities for acquisitions with payment in kind.

The Board of Directors was furthermore authorized to decide on the repurchase of a maximum number of class B shares whereby the holding of treasury shares at no time exceeds 10% of all registered shares in the company. The motive for the authorization is to give the Board greater freedom of action in optimizing the company's capital structure. The AGM also authorized the Board to decide on the sale of the company's own shares as consideration for the acquisition of companies or operations.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors consists of five members elected by the AGM and no deputies. The member-selected by the AGM are appointed to serve for the period until the next AGM in accordance with the Code. There is no rule stipulating the maximum period of time for which a member can serve on the Board. The Board members and their dependency status in relation to the company's shareholders, etc., are shown in the table below.

The average age of the Board members is 52 years and one of the five members is a woman. The nominating committee considers all of the Board members except one to be independent in relation to the company, its management and the company's major shareholders. IAR Systems Group meets the requirements in the Code regarding the Board of Directors' independence in relation to the company, its management and the company's major shareholders.

Work and responsibilities of the Board

According to the Swedish Companies Act, the Board is also responsible for ensuring that the Group's organization is suitably structured so that the company's accounting, cash management and other financial circumstances can be controlled satisfactorily. The work of the Board is regulated by the Swedish Companies Act, the Articles of Association, the Code and the rules of procedure that are adopted yearly by the Board. The rules of procedure describe the division of responsibilities between the Board of Directors, the Board Chairman and the CEO, and also contain provisions to secure the Board's need for continuous information and financial reporting, as well as instructions for the CEO.

Among other things, the rules of procedure state that the Board Chairman and CEO shall work closely to monitor the Group's development and to plan and lead board meetings. The Chairman is responsible for ensuring that the Board carries out an annual self-assessment of its performance and evaluates its own work routines, and that the Board is continuously provided with the information needed to perform its duties effectively. The Chairman represents the company in matters related to the shareholders.

The tasks of the Board are to formulate IAR Systems Group's overall goals and strategies, to prepare budgets and business plans, to discuss and approve the annual accounts and interim reports, and to establish key policies and regulatory systems. The Board monitors the Group's financial performance, ensures the quality of the financial reporting and internal control and regularly follows up and evaluates the business activities based on the Board's established targets and guidelines. The Board also decides on major investments and changes in IAR Systems Group's organization and operations.

Work of the Board in 2014

In 2014 the Board held 13 meetings, of which six were scheduled and seven were extra meetings. Each of the regular meetings followed an approved agenda, and both the proposed agendas and underlying documentation were sent to the Board members prior to each meeting. The CEO and certain other senior executives in the company have taken part in board meetings in a reporting capacity and the company's CFO has served as secretary of the Board. At the board meetings, the Board has dealt with the fixed items on the agenda

Remuneration to the Board

The Chairman and other members of the Board of Directors are paid fees in accordance with the decision of the AGM. No additional remuneration is paid for work on the Board's committees. No board fees are paid to members who receive salary from companies in IAR Systems Group. In 2014 this rule applied to Stefan Skarin.

BOARD COMMITTEES AND COMMITTEE WORK

In order to handle the Board members' independence there are two committees, the remuneration committee and the audit committee, whose members are appointed by the Board. The main task of these committees is to prepare proposals for decision by the Board. The committees do not constitute any delegation of the legal responsibilities of the Board and its members. The issues dealt with at the committee meetings are reported orally to the Board at the following board meetings. No additional remuneration is paid for work on the Board's committees. See also pages 66-67 for a description of the nominating committee and other board committees.

AUDITORS

The independent auditor is appointed by the AGM and its task is to examine the company's financial reporting and the administration of the company by the Board of Directors and the CEO. The auditor was appointed by the 2014 AGM, at which time Deloitte was elected as auditor to serve for the period until the end of the 2015 AGM. Auditor in Charge is Erik Olin (born in 1973). In addition to IAR Systems Group, he has audit assignments for TeliaSonera Sverige, Micro Systemation, Microsoft Sverige and Tata Consultancy Services Sverige, among others.

On two occasions in 2012, the Auditor in Charge met with the Board to present the focus and scope of the audit, report his observations from the review of the interim report at September 30, his evaluation of internal control and the audit of the annual accounts for 2014. On one occasion in 2014, the Board met with the auditor without the presence of the CEO or other member of the company's management.

Deloitte issues an audit report regarding IAR Systems Group AB, IAR Systems AB and the Group. He also performs non-audit services for the companies in the IAR Group. These have mainly consisted of tax consultations in direct connection with the audit. For this work, Deloitte invoiced a total amount of SEK 0,2m in 2014. The auditor is paid fees in accordance with the decision of the AGM. For information about fees to auditors in 2013 and 2014, see Note 5 on page 50.

CEO

The Board appoints the President of IAR Systems Group AB, who is also the CEO. The CEO is responsible for day-to-day management of operations in the Parent Company and the Group.

The CEO supervises operations according to the instructions adopted by the Board. He is responsible for ensuring that the Board members are supplied with the necessary information and decision data ahead of Board meetings, presents reports and submits well founded proposals for decision. The CEO provides the members of the Board monthly with the information needed to monitor the financial position, activities and development of the Parent Company and the Group and keeps the Board Chairman continuously informed about operations.

The CEO takes the necessary measures to ensure that the company's financial accounting and reporting are carried out in compliance with law and that financial management is handled in a satisfactory manner. A more detailed description of the division of responsibilities between the Board and the CEO is provided in written instructions to the CEO, which are updated yearly.

Stefan Skarin has been President and CEO since February 2008.

REMUNERATION FOR THE CEO AND OTHER SENIOR EXECUTIVES

The principles for remuneration for the CEO and other senior executives are drawn up by the remuneration committee and presented to the Board, which puts forward proposals for such principles for approval by the AGM. The remuneration principles for 2014 were unchanged compared to those applied in 2013. The group of other senior executives was expanded in 2014 to include the four individuals who aside from the CEO made up the Executive Management during the year. The comparative figures for the group of other senior executives for 2013 have been changed to correspond to the same definition of other senior executives as in 2014, and refer to three individuals.

For 2014, Group has applied the principles for remuneration and other terms of employment for senior executives that were approved by the AGM. Remuneration to the CEO and other senior executives consists of basic salary, variable salary, other benefits and pension. The maximum of variable salary for the CEO and other senior executives corresponds to 50% of basic salary. Pension benefits and other benefits are paid as part of the total remuneration package.

In the event of dismissal by the company, the CEO and CFO are entitled to full salary during a notice period of 12 months and termination benefits corresponding to a maximum of six monthly salaries. For other senior executives, there is a mutual notice period of between three and six months.

INTERNAL CONTROL

The Swedish Companies Act and the Swedish Code of Corporate Governance state that the Board of Directors is responsible for ensuring that the company has satisfactory internal control, for staying informed about the company's internal control system and for evaluating the effectiveness of this system.

Control environment

The basis for internal control in IAR Systems Group is the control environment, which includes the organizational structure, decision-making paths, powers and responsibilities. The control environment is documented and communicated in the form of normative documents such as internal policies, guidelines and instructions. These include the division of responsibilities between the Board of Directors and the CEO and instructions for signatory powers, accounting and reporting.

Risk assessment

The Board of Directors has ultimate responsibility for the company's risk management. Controlled risk-taking is achieved through a well defined organization and decision-making procedures that include a high level of risk awareness among the employees and the application of uniform definitions and principles within an established framework. The primary risk areas are the account closing process in connection with financial reporting, operational risks and legal risk.

Control activities

The Group's business processes include financial controls that regulate approval and reporting of business transactions. The account closing and reporting process contains controls for aspects such as accounting, valuation and disclosure requirements and regarding the application of significant accounting policies and estimates both in the individual subsidiaries and at the group level.
